Danish School of Media and Journalism Visual Communication - Creative Communication Subject description Spring 2023

4th semester

Integrated Communication and Project

Duration: 6 weeks (15 ECTS)

Objective

The students will work on strategic and creative issues through the development of integrated creative communication. In this course, the students learn to compose messages and media choices into original and relevant communication activities. The students work with nuanced communication solutions in different media. The students are trained in analysing problems and make strategic choices in relation to the market, message, target groups and sender, and to argue for the choices and the communication solution.

The result is integrated, creative communication tasks in which the students demonstrate competences in solving tasks in concept development and modern integrated communication.

The students learn the nuances of communicating through different media. The students are trained to analyse a problem and make strategic choices in relation to the market, positioning, message, target groups and sender, and to present argumentation for choices and communication solutions.

Pedagogical and didactical approach:

The students learn to link theoretical reflection with actions in practice, as well as to reflect on and apply relevant theory and knowledge. This is done to be able to assess and qualify one's actions in a professional practice. The learning activities are based on the following fundamental Reflective Practice-based Learning principles:

- No. 2: Teaching and learning activities designed to include appropriate disturbances
- No. 3: Teaching and learning activities are organized as exploration
- No. 4: The content of teaching and learning activities is based on the good example

No. 6: Lecturers and students create room for dialogue

The programme is structured in a combination of self-study, theoretical discussions, lectures, and group work. Both mandatory and voluntary oral feedback is given to students on assignments. Assignments are solved in groups and presented to the class where lecturers – external and staff – and the students give oral feedback. This is then reflected upon on an individual basis.

Mandatory attendance/participation:

Attendance is compulsory for all scheduled classes. Participation is compulsory in exercises, group work, tutorials, joint feedback, and summaries.

Preconditions for the exam:

Meeting the exam prerequisites is a requirement for the student to participate in the course exam. Examination prerequisites may include attendance, participation, group work, assignments, papers, presentations, etc. Failure to meet an examination prerequisite will result in the student failing an examination attempt.

Mandatory attendance:

Attendance is mandatory for the course. The learning system itslearning indicates the learning and teaching activities for which physical attendance is mandatory (MP).

Compulsory participation:

Participation is compulsory in group work and feedback.

Remedial options:

In case of legal absence, remediation applies.

Substitute assignments:

Absences from teaching and learning activities may be replaced by one or more assignments if the teacher deems it possible. If the student's absence from teaching and learning activities is deemed excessive in relation to the content and learning objectives of the course, the course must be rescheduled.

Examination:

Assessed by 7-point scale and external censor.

Examination format: The course ends with a creative solution and a report, in which the student documents his/her competences to independently analyze, assess, document, and solve communication problems. 30 minutes oral examination; voting included (+10 min for 2-person group examination). Students are assessed individually. The assessment reflects an overall evaluation of the creative solution, the academic argumentation, and the oral presentation.
